IT doesn't speak well for Stanford that her people patronized so poorly such high-class entertainments as the Chautauqua gentlemen gave. Anderson's Comedians, the worst lot of "barnstormers" that ever came here, had packed houses as compared with those the Chautauqua people had. Is it possible that our people care nothing for the literary and elevating?

THE Rockcastle county fair begins at Broadhead next Wednesday, 18th, and many Lincoln county people are making their arrangements to attend.

THE Liberty News says that Caleb Powers has many friends in Casey who will be for him for Congress it matters not who comes out against him. We thought better of our clever Casey county republican friends.

MR. A. ADDAMS, of Lincoln county, candidate for Prison Commissioner, was in Louisville yesterday after a trip over the State in the interest of his race. Mr. Addams reports that he is well pleased with his prospects, and his many friends who remember him as Clerk of the Court of Appeals are interesting themselves in his race. Mr. Addams says he is in the race to stay, and he believes that he is sure to win. He will attend the Democratic barbecue.—Courier-Journal.

THE Chautauqua came to an end Tuesday night. Senator Regan, the entertainer for Monday and Tuesday, greatly pleased his hearers. His subject, "The Fool Taxpayer," put many of our people to thinking and many to ask themselves where all the money paid out for taxes goes. Senator Regan is not only a good talker but an expert cartoonist. The vocal quartette, which accompanies him, made splendid music. Rev. L. L. Pickett, who is managing these State-Wide Prohibition Chautauqs, was on hand Tuesday night and made an interesting and timely talk.

ASSASSINATED.—J. A. Engleman, operator for the Queen & Crescent at King's Mountain, was shot to death in the depot there about 2 o'clock yesterday morning. The shot was fired through the window and the bullet entering the back of his head, death must have been instantaneous. His pistol and watch were taken but some $8 or $10 in the cash drawer was not molested. Mr. Engleman was about 25 years old and for many years resided at Shelby City. His mother and brother, Mr. Matt Engleman, of Mt. Salem, survive. He leaves his wife, to whom he was married in March last. She was Miss Haggard, a daughter of Mr. W. G. Haggard.

Coroner George P. Bright went to the scene and summoned a jury to make an investigation. Being unable to get a clue they returned a verdict to the effect that Mr. Engleman came to his death from a pistol shot wound inflicted by unknown parties. Lair's bloodhounds were put on the trail and they followed it along the railroad. When last heard from the dogs had reached a point just below Waynesburg and were trailing steadily.

This is the second operator who has been killed at King's Mountain within the past two years, the other being Mr. Haldon VanDevere, who was shot to death by Harve Watts, who died from an overdose of chloral in jail while awaiting his trial.

It has been only about five years since Agent Rucker was assassinated in the depot at Danville, making three operators killed within a distance of 25 miles of each other in the very brief period of five years or less.

WORK on the court-house is progressing satisfactorily and Contractors Krueger & Miller think they will have the big building completed by Winter.

THE sign writers thought they had barrels of fun Wednesday night when they soiled for the time a number of show windows in town. If the little cigarette puffers had something to do in the day they wouldn't indulge in such devilry when night comes and if the vagrancy law were enforced as it should be the trouble makers would be too tired to spend their nights in carousing and general cussedness.

TO THE FARMERS.—Having lost my barn by fire and being insured in the Home Insurance Co., of New York, represented by Jesse D. Wearan, the insurance man, Stanford, Ky., it is with pleasure that I recommend both the company and Jesse D. Wearan to the farmers and insuring public. Furthermore, last year during the night rider trouble in our State, the Home Insurance Co., of New York, was the company that stood by the farmers; they did not stop writing tobacco barns, nor did they cancel any. I was compelled to change my policy from another company to the Home in order to get insurance on my tobacco barns, so I feel that the farmers should give a company of this kind the preference in placing their farm property. Wilson Alexander, Stanford, Ky. Aug. 5, 1909. 2t.

NOTICE!

The order entered by the county court Aug. 9, dismissing the application for a total election in Lincoln county, has been, by the court, set aside and an order made setting Tuesday, Aug. 24, at 10 A. The men who secured the 1,500 signatures to the petition must, at that time, be present to make the proof required by Statute or no election can be held.

REWARD.

Having suffered considerable annoyance and damage from outlaws, in breaking gate latches and tearing down and destroying my gates, on the county road that runs through my farm, I have concluded to offer a reward for information leading to the conviction of such person or persons, I will therefore give the sum of $50 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any party or parties, that have broken the latches on any of my gates, or that have sawed down or torn down any of my gates on the county road which runs from the Hustonville turnpike to the Millidgeville turnpike, through my farm; and I will give the same amount for information leading to the arrest and conviction of any party or parties who in the future commit any of the above offenses.

Witness my hand this 10th day of August, 1909.
